I grew up in Richmond, Virginia, moved to New York in the fifties, and have been in NY/NJ ever since. I raised my now-grown children and worked in publishing in New York, moving to New Jersey in the early seventies. I've most recently been a travel editor at Fodor's, and am now retired (though I still travel a lot). I'm a cousin of Ellen Thurman, through whom I heard of this trip, and I met David (and the Fawcetts) on our recent trip to Cuba.

TRAVEL PLANS: Thurs. May 4, fly British Air, Newark to Venice via London/Heathrow, arriving May 5, 12:50 pm to pick up rental car (with whom?) for Villa Saraceno. Friday, May 12, leave V.S. to spend 3 nights in Venice; May 15 fly BA Venice-London, arriving 11:00 am, and picking up rental car with David, Ellen, and (?) the Wards, to drive to Teeside. May 15--19 Kiplin Hall; May 19--21 London. Then take Eurostar to Paris to stay with some friends there and in the Dordogne, then to Toulouse and the Midi-Pyrenees for a few days, returning to Newark June 2.

Chip has known David since 1947 (classmates at Princeton), Now an attorney (semi-retired), Chip was a city planner for 25 years before going to law school. He also studied architecture at PU but didn't finish, graduating in Politics; then a masters' degree in planning from University of North Carolina, JD from Georgetown. He worked in various roles as a planner, policy analyst, and whatever until he married Myrna and joined her in their law firm.

Myrna has known David since 1987. She graduated in History from Barnard and Georgetown Law School. She's practiced law since law school. She also was a partner on a shop specializing in Art Nouveau and Deco art and furniture, and has worked in concert and film production.

We've done mostly public interest law but are burning out; looking for new careers. We live in Washington, D.C. and live and work in the same building. Both of us love Italy, especially townscapes and architectural history

TRAVEL PLANS: Leave Washington for Milan April 27. Renting car at Milan airport, in Stresa, Italy, April 28-May 5; arriving Villa Saraceno May 5. Leave Villa Saraceno May 12, stop somewhere along the route, fly out of Milan May 14.

Before moving to Raleigh, NC in 1995, Mary (Hollins, UNC, Chapel Hill, Georgetown, Harvard) taught high school history and government in Virginia. Tom (William and Mary and Catholic University) taught humanities, held several positions in school administration, and worked at NEH. We lived in Washington, DC where we were involved in community work and historic preservation, especially the Dupont Circle Citizens Association protecting buildings in the historic district. As members of the Arts Club we devoted many hours to the preservation of the historic Monroe House, a national register property.

In Raleigh we live in a house that Mary's mother built in the 1930s. We continue efforts to upgrade the house and garden. Our travels have taken us to more than 40 countries, including several extended visits to Italy and 8 weeks in Florence. We are looking forward to exploring the area around the villa and Venice.

TRAVEL PLANS: Leave Raleigh on April 28 for Paris to visit friends. Go to Milan on May 2. On May 5 drive to the villa. We would be happy to share the car or get rid of it and share some one else's car. From the villa it's on to Venice and then to England and Kiplin Hall with Dave. Finally we visit friends in Dorset and London, take in the Chelsea Flower Show, and head home on May 24.

Janet: Former interior designer (mostly commercial work, with several adaptive reuse projects), now working in land development and sponsoring a therapeutic riding program. I met David while attending the graduate program in historic preservation at UM and went to Kiplin the summer of '95 as a "mature" student of his with a bunch of 20 year olds and had a blast. I, too, am a member of the Annapolis Preservation Trust, (and also Historic Annapolis), and helped shanghai David into being president. As well as being a preservationist and enjoying art and architecture, I am also an avid equestrian, in the sport of dressage. I have 4 grown children and 2 grandchildren. This trip sounds like a lot of fun, and I'm looking forward to meeting all of you.

Bill: Bill Pearson retired as Rear Admiral and Chief Engineer of the U. S. Public Health Service, as well as Chief of Staff of the Indian Health Service. He is now the owner of Natural Healing, Inc. (which consists of two stores/offices in Annapolis and Severna Park, Maryland specializing in natural healing treatments, herbs, nutrition, exercises-yoga, therapeutic massages, etc.) and Natural Healing, USA (an ambitious embryonic effort to franchise nationally). Bill is a grandfather with a son in Alaska and a daughter in Wyoming and five grandchildren.

TRAVEL PLANS: Our travel plans are incomplete at this time, but we think we will be going to Paris and the South of France either the week before or the week after Venice. We may also be visiting a friend in Provence for a few days somewhere in there.

Pamela: I was evacuated to Connecticut from England in 1940, returning to my parents in 1945 to complete my secondary education. After university, I spent three years in the Middle East and emigrated to the States in 1959 where I met Farrell—but not until 1969. We were married five months later. Am looking forward to seeing Dave Fogle again and to being with my sister, Patricia Phillips, and her husband, Max, who will be joining us from England.

Farrell: Dave Fogle and I were roommates at Exeter and Princeton. We were drawn to each other because we were both southerners (I was from Memphis) among a bunch of Yankees. My parents went on trips with Dave's mother some forty years ago. Now history repeats itself. Pamela and I moved from our winter home in Jupiter, Florida last November to Pinehurst, North Carolina. In spite of a terrible winter and a serious fire in the house, we love it. Our principal residence is in Salisbury, Connecticut, which started as a week-end place while I was working for CBS in New York.

TRAVEL PLANS: Flying to Venice on May 3. Renting a car and will pick up Pat and Max Phillips at the train station in Padua. On May 12, we fly from Venice to Munich for a week on the Danube on the Mozart. Then back to Pinehurst.

Mickey retired 3 years ago from the US Department of Transportation, Federal Railroad Administration, where she was a senior policy analyst on transportation, environmental/preservation, urban policy, and high-speed rail issues. Previously, she was a senior staff member at the Council on Environmental Quality, where she represented the Chairman on the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation and also worked on urban and land use issues.

Currently, she has been consulting on environmental issues in proposed transportation projects, doing some watercolor painting, and has been teaching 20th Century literature at The Institute for Learning in Retirement, affiliated with American University in Washington, D.C. She has also been doing a lot of travelling. She and David Fogle co-authored Clues to American Architecture in 1985, rev. 1987, which has since sold nearly 60,000 copies nationwide. Mickey has three grown children and four grandchildren.

TRAVEL PLANS: She will be arriving at Venice airport from Spain (after a walking trip from Malaga to Granada) on May 5th, on Iberian Airlines at 1:00 p.m. She will then be sharing a car with David Fogle and Ellen and Conrad. After Villa Saraceno, she, David, Ellen, Conrad, and the Wards will be in Venice from the 12th to the 15th of May. They will go to Kiplin Hall on the 15th. Mickey will then go to London from the 16th to the 19th, when she will fly to Boston for her college reunion at Wheaton College, and return home to Washington on May 21st, where she lives in Georgetown.

Rob is a long-time friend of Dave Fogle's, the two first meeting during a planners' junket to South America back in 1968. An alumnus of the Harvard Graduate School of Design, he has worked as a planner in New York and Boston and since 1992 has been involved in a variety of preservation, heritage tourism, writing and computer database projects working from his house in the village of Jaffrey Center where he also tends to find himself in the middle of controversial local issues. He's been working on his old house for 23 years and someday it may be finished. His major interest these days is the Antarctic, particularly the history of Antarctic exploration and its literature. He's filled one room in Jaffrey with Antarctic books and is well into another. He also has an Antarctic webpage and is in the throes of bringing together like-minded people in a loosely organized group called The Antarctic Circle. Rob was in the group that was at Goddards for a week last June.

TRAVEL PLANS: Mon 1 May: Boston-London, arriving 2 May. Fri 5 May: London-Venice, arriving 12:10pm Alitalia. At Villa Saraceno for one week. Fri 12 May: Venice-London, departing 1:10pm Alitalia. Wed 24 May: London-Boston. Renting car with Betsey in Venice for the week at the Villa. Can accommodate two others.
