Photo 2: The south and west facades of the Meetinghouse with The Common in the foreground and the Horsesheds and Benjamin Cutter Tavern in the background. (9/19/13)

Photo 3: The south facade of the Meetinghouse with the Horsesheds in the background and Mt. Monadnock beyond. (3/20/12)

Photo 4: The north facade showing the original "pulpit" window and the two-hole privy windows and clean-outs in the base of the Tower. (7/25/15)

Photo 7: The upper Tower from the south. (11/20/19)

Photo 8: The Clock face on the south facade of the Tower. (9/25/17)

Photo 9: Looking up the stairs to the hatch accessing the Bell stage of the Tower. (6/2/16)

Photo 10: Possibly the earliest extant photograph of the Meetinghouse, prior to its conversion to Town Offices and High School. The Horsesheds and a Hearse House appear at the rear left with Mt. Monadnock beyond. The Town Clock (1906) had yet to be installed.. (ca. 1865; photographer unknown)
