Charades.

C H A R A D E S

Second Edition, 1976

Set 843 of one thousand

For an answer sheet send a stamped self-addressed envelope to

BOSTON CHARADES
P.O. Box 1655
Boston, MA 02105

Additional sets may be obtained at original purchase location or from the above address at $6 per set, postpaid. Mass residents please add .30¢ State sales tax.

Charades.

These cards of Charades were drawn by the great grandmother of the present owner.

As an example of how to solve them, the answer to the card with the legend "Away from home" is A broad or abroad, and the answer to "an airy thing" is Fan C or fancy.

The enclosed list of words may be of help in solving most but not all of these riddles.

Helping Words

ample	bull	dolls
and	bus	duck
ants	by	ease
ass	cap	essay
awl	cents	eye
baize	chew	faced
bar	cited	fan
be	city	foul
bill	cross	fried
bit	descend	grate
broad	dice	her

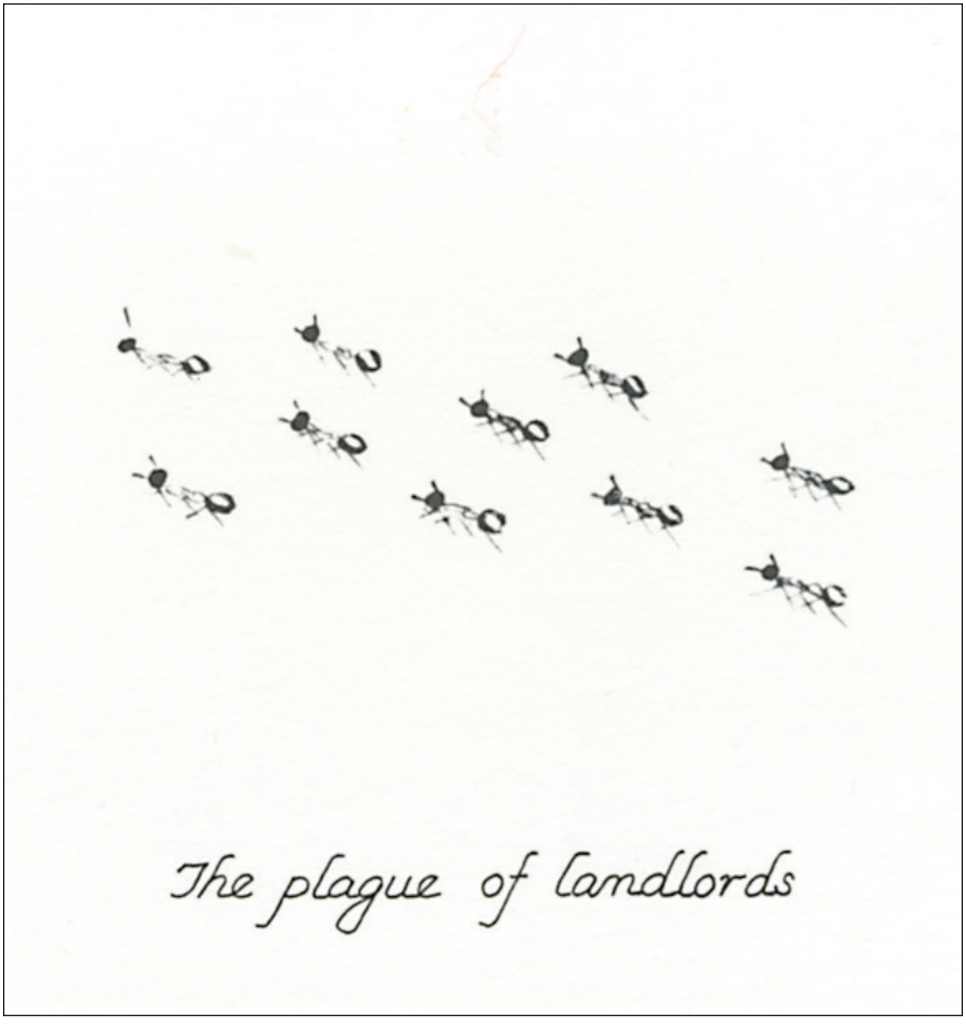
human	man	Pope
in	mill	post
isles	mont	press
Jane	more	sin
key	mouse	standing
kin	natural	stuck
kind	nightmare	tar
lap	on	ten
leaf	pair	tent
less	parted	turn
licks	pendant	under
lock	pod	vote

What we may not make unto ourselves

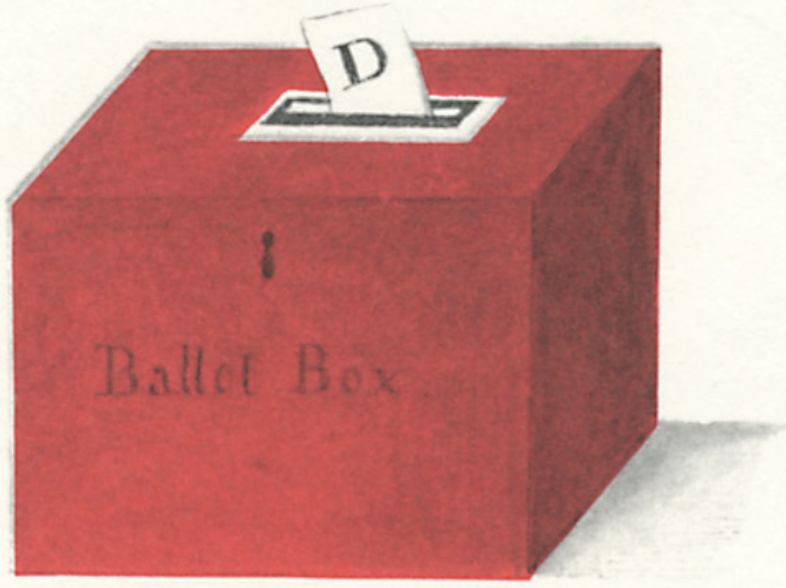
EEE+++
mariage
+++
eee
An old bachelor's satirical remark

A fine plaster for walls

Of the same meaning



The plague of landlords



What a lover should be

Away from home

A flower

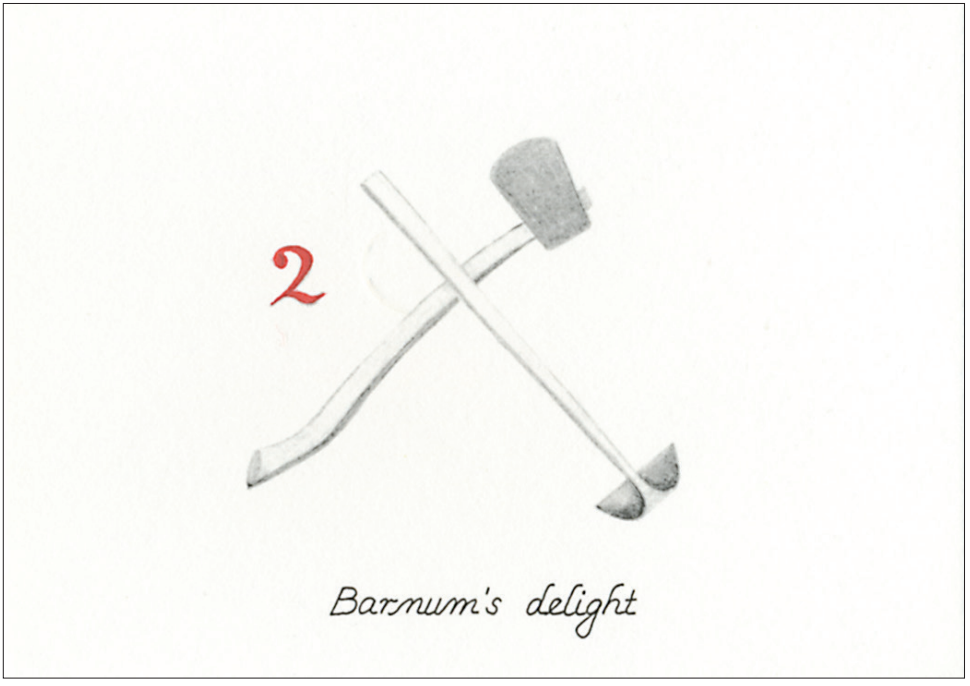
Distinction

C

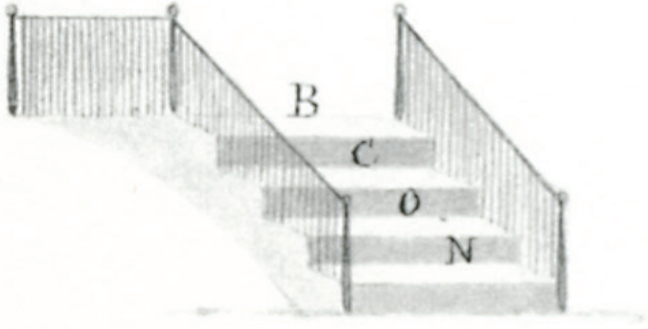
An airy thing

A state of mind not coveted

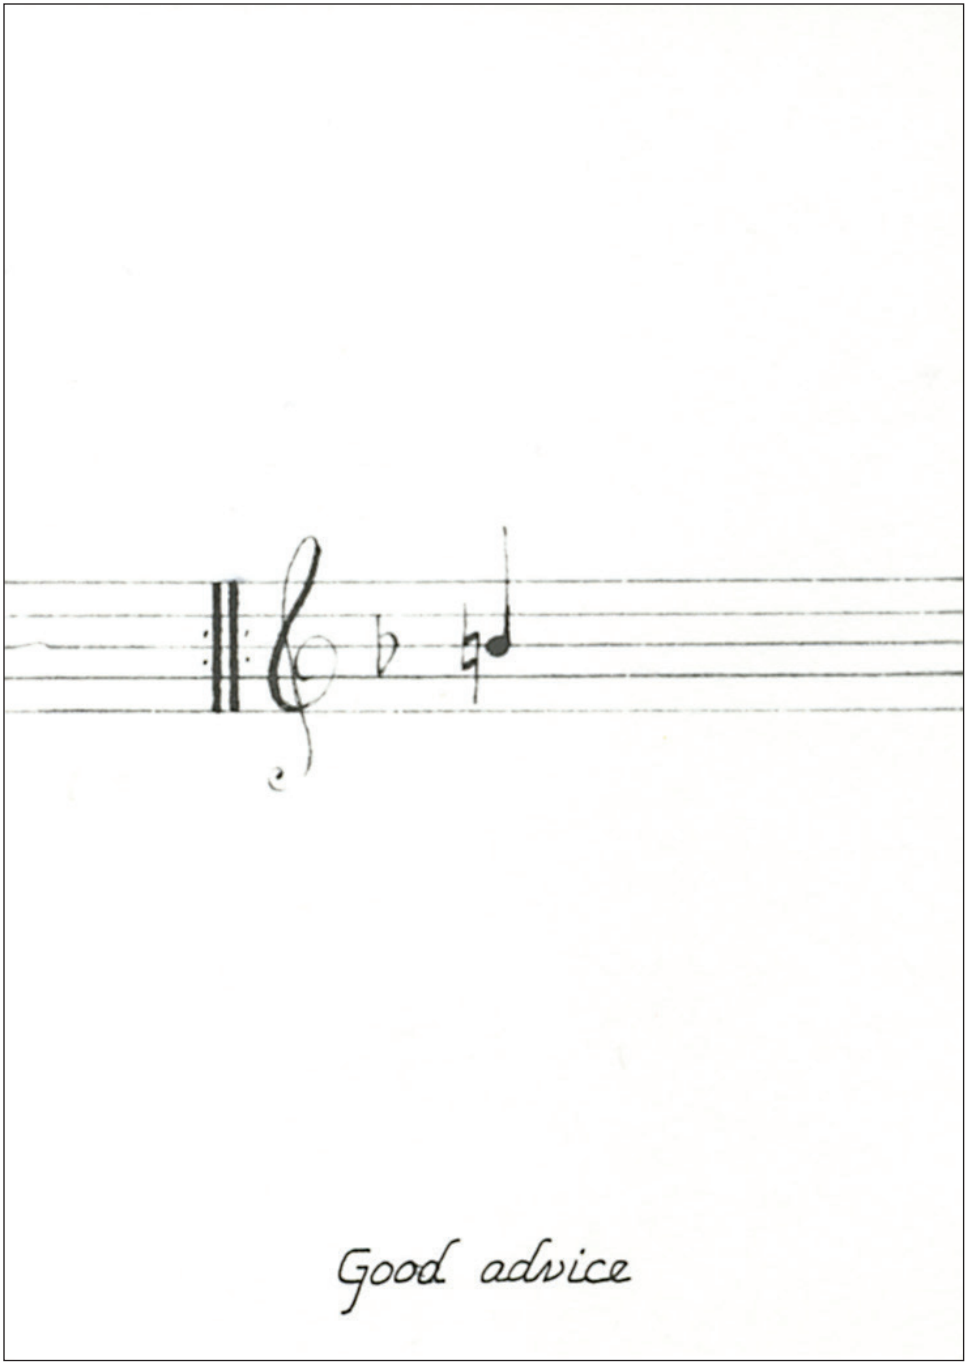
An object of universal blame



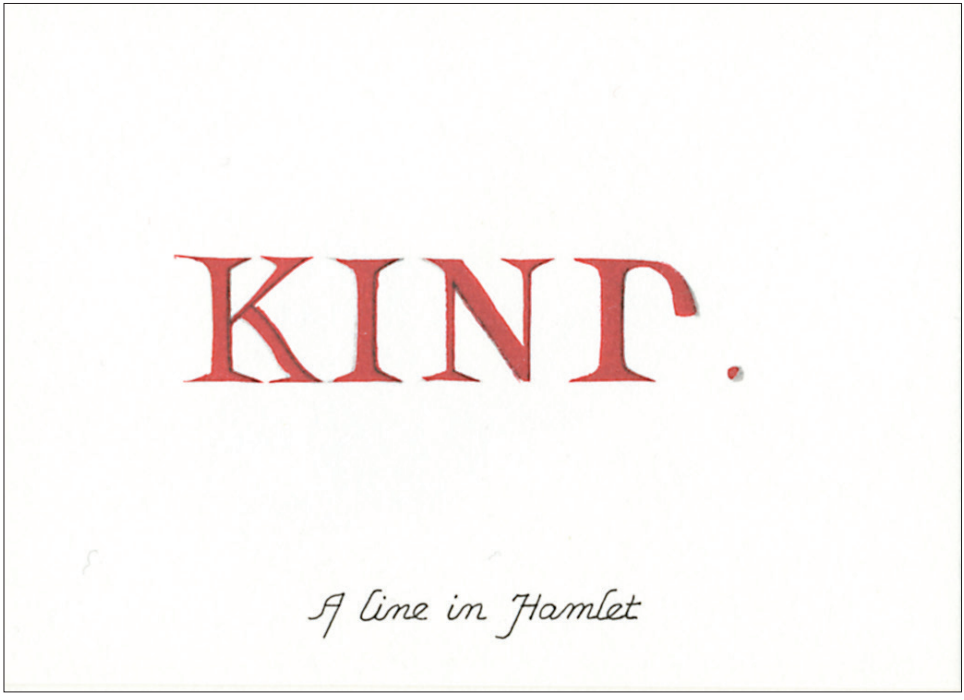
2
Barnum's delight



Advice to the haughty



Good advice



KING.
A Line in Hamlet

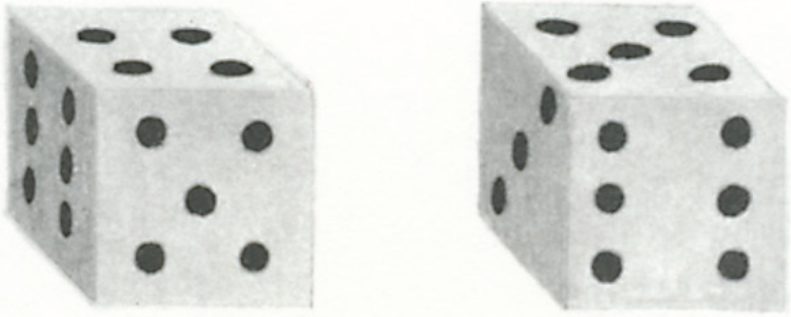
What all wish to be

What tyrants often do

What a hostess feels when a bore has departed

Chastised

A slow movement in music



What Adam lost

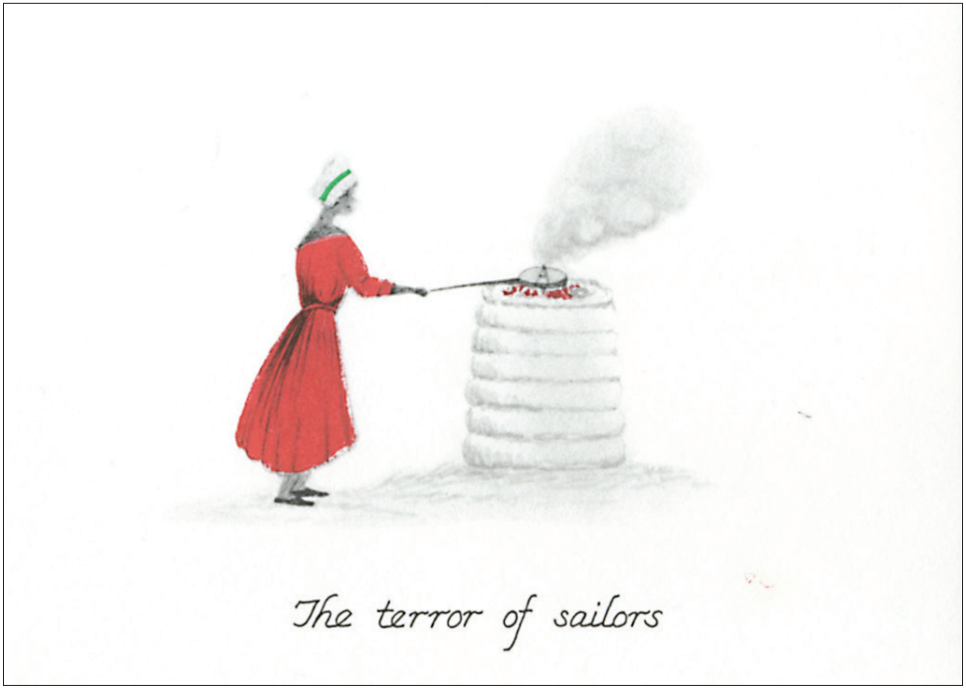
A well-known poem

I M
What we all are by your attractions

Important to ladies

S Q

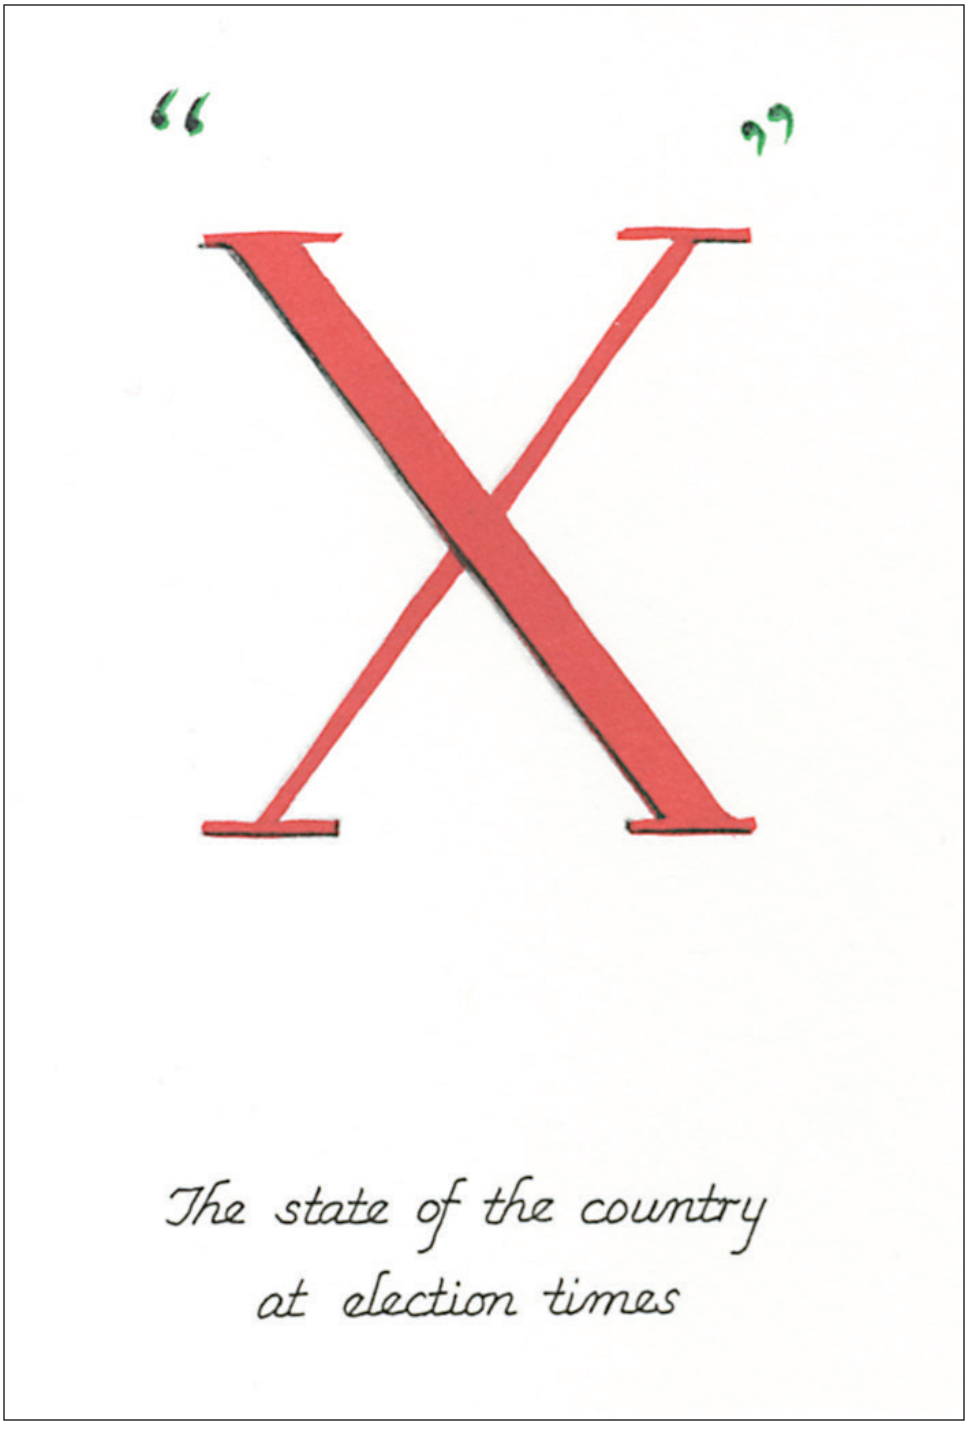
A celebrated French author



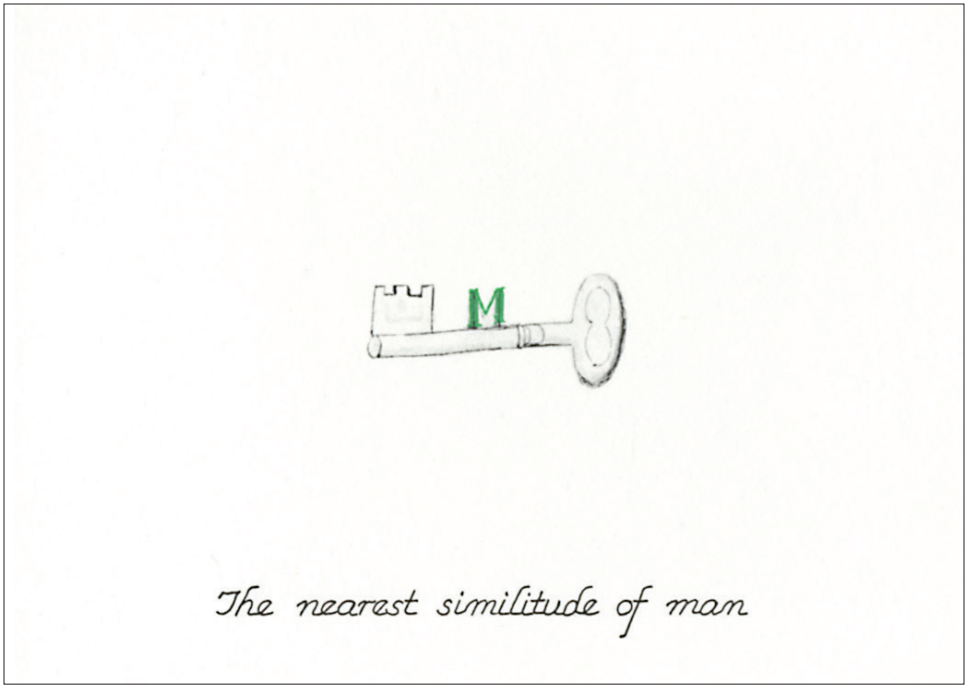
The terror of sailors

Bi
X
The best way to teach

An obstacle to learning

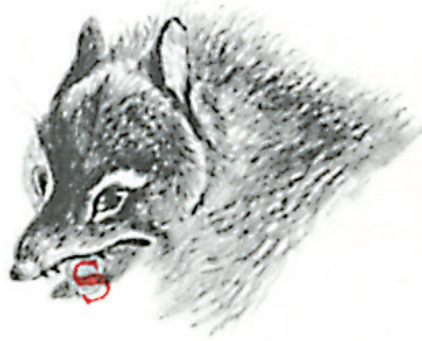


“ ”
X
The state of the country
at election times



M
The nearest similitude of man

T. T.
What mischievous children like to do



What sin should be

A lady of rank

The dread of bachelors and the plague of married men

Too often the fate of past benefits

Gone away

What letters should never be

An erection for sacrifices

A French dish

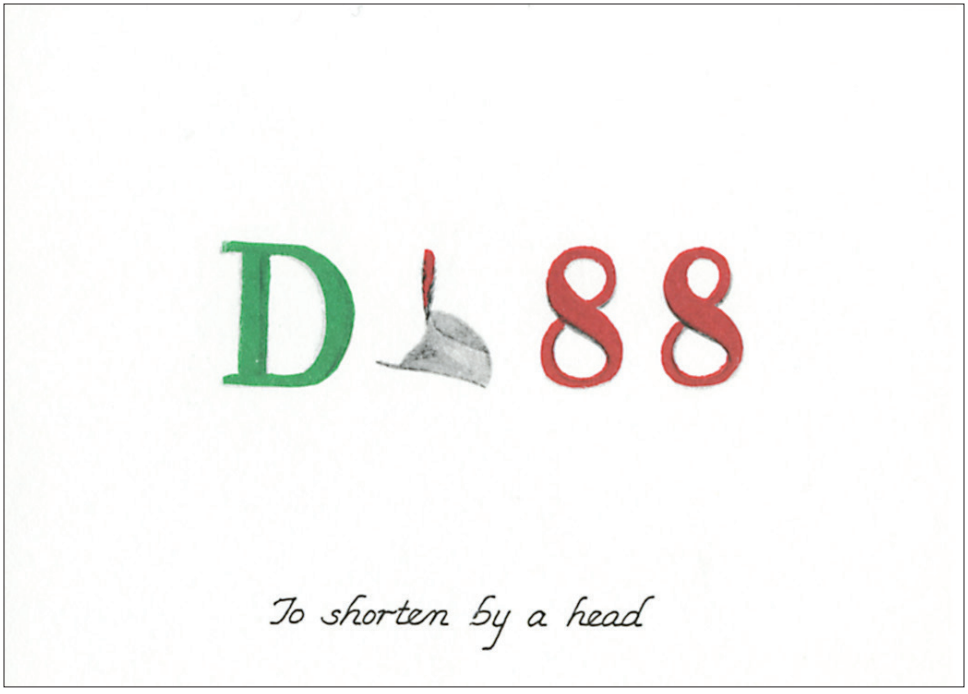
An arithmetical term

An ancient measure of length

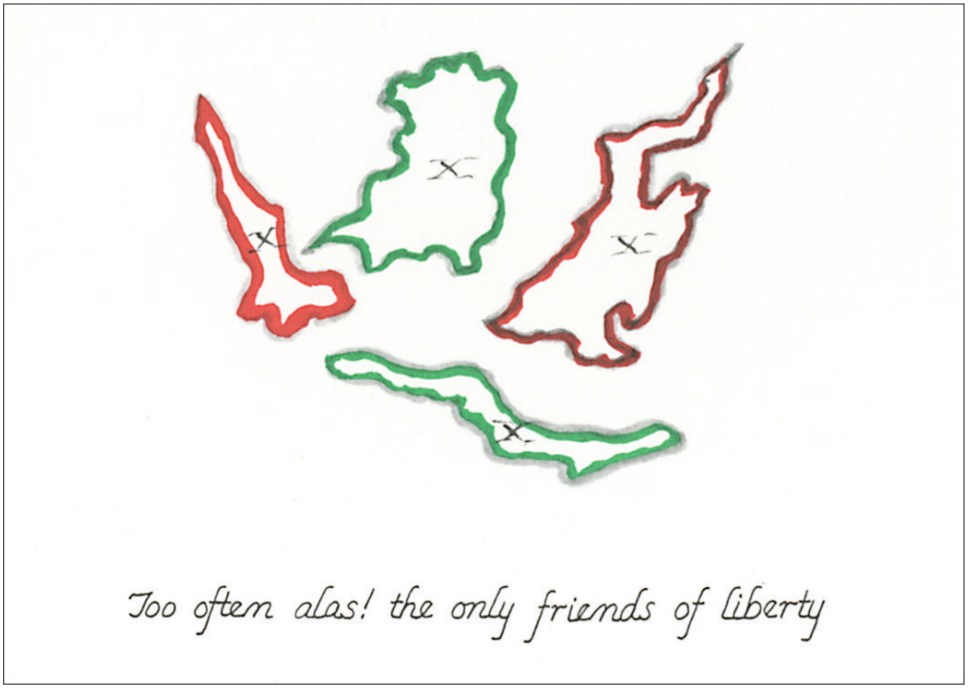
A work of celebrity

E
A medicine

RE
Just come back



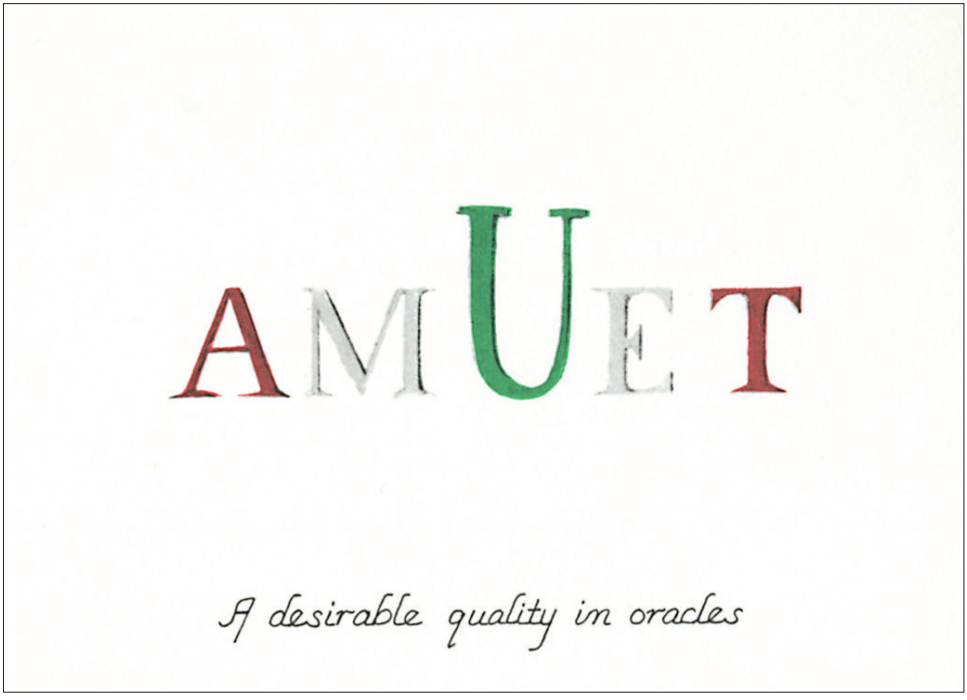
D
88
To shorten by a head



Too often alas! the only friends of liberty

Q
A foe to quiet slumber

Deeply engaged



AMUET
A desirable quality in oracles

A treasure once lost not easily recovered

An obstacle to success