

Dear Harvard Travellers Club Member,

We're sorry you missed the 800th meeting of the Harvard Travellers Club, held at the Harvard Club of Boston on the evening of November 10, 2009.

Nevertheless, we thought it appropriate that each Member in good standing receive this special memento of that occasion.

We hope you enjoy it, and we do wish to see you at future meetings.

Sincerely,

Ken Bures

800th Meeting Celebration

The November 10 meeting is our 800th, and we will be celebrating with a special speaker, a special dinner, and a special memento by which to remember the occasion. The speaker is Conrad Anker. Details of his presentation are given in the accompanying monthly notice. The dinner is a re-creation of that served at the 72nd meeting, on December 12, 1911, at the Exchange Club in Boston, where Theodore Roosevelt described his then recent East African safari. Hors d'oeuvres will be served during the cocktail hour. A special memento of the occasion will be provided to all Members and guests at the dinner, and will be mailed to all other Members in good standing (those who have paid their dues). To help defray the extra cost of our celebration, guests will be charged $65.
