Edward E. Goodale
Sidney H. Shureliff } Proposers.

Membership is not limited to Harvard students or graduates, or to travellers, but is open to men who are interested in the object of the Club, namely: "The promotion of intelligent travel and exploration."

In electing new members it has been the policy of the Council to give preference to those nominees who would most contribute to the Club's interest and activity.

The Club pursues a policy of admission by invitation. For this reason it is suggested, though not required, that sponsors bring the names of nominees to the Secretary or some member of the Council before the nominee himself is asked if he desires to join the Club.

NOTE.—It is requested that a brief statement be made on the back of this blank respecting the candidate.

It is always best to assume that the Council knows nothing whatever about the candidate.
