Hi Rob,

In receipt of your voicemail and I asked Renee to provide you the break out of cost that make up the change order. If you still have questions after you receive please let me know we can discuss further. We actually reduced the hourly rate to do the best we can cost wise because I know it was somewhat unexpected. I also absorbed the cost to rebuild the sign and have not and do not plan to charge for that.

Again once she sends it over and you have time to review, feel free to reach out with any questions. I have kind of spotty service for most of the day.

Thanks
Brad
