

*Lafayette and the Farewell Tour:
Odyssey of an American Idol*

Alan R. Hoffman (Yale and Harvard Law School) ‘discovered Lafayette’ in 2002 and spent two years translating Auguste Levasseur’s Lafayette in America in 1824 and 1825, the first-hand account of Lafayette’s Farewell Tour of America, which is now in its third printing. President of the American Friends of Lafayette and the Massachusetts Lafayette Society, Hoffman has lectured in 22 of the 24 states that Lafayette visited on his Farewell tour. A prize for who can guess the two he’s missed!

Free & open to the public.

To:

A portrait of the Marquis de Lafayette, a French aristocrat and military leader who fought in the American Revolutionary War. He is depicted from the chest up, wearing a dark blue military-style coat with ornate gold embroidery on the collar and lapels. Underneath, he has a white cravat and a dark turtleneck. His hair is powdered and styled in a large, curly wig. He has a serious expression and is looking slightly to the right of the viewer.
