DEEP WATER

Murder, Scandal, and Intrigue in a New England Town

Saturday, July 9 - 10 a.m.

Jaffrey Civic Center

DEEP WATER, by former Jaffrey resident Ken Sheldon, is the first in-depth examination of the murder of William K. Dean on August 13, 1918, supported by a grant from the Bean Family Foundation and the Jaffrey Historical Society. Join us to honor the memory of Margaret and Mark Bean. Ken will read from the book, discuss the writing, and sign copies.
