

Thanksgiving at the Munroe's in Bolton, Connecticut. I am now allowed to sit down—finally. Aunt Agnes still going strong at 101. The Grand Tetons, my favorite of all mountains.

The latest reunion of those who travelled through Africa together in 1972. We spent a week at the Rafter Six Ranch west of Calgary. In 2015 or so, we'll be heading for Spain. Olé!

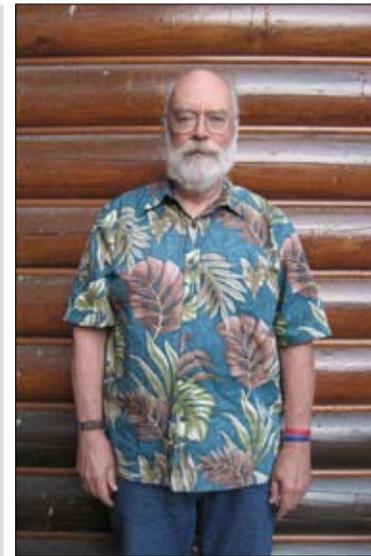

Fish & Chips in Folkestone, with Wendy, Duncan and David. The same at Geales in Notting Hill Gate with Marty Greene, Seattle collector par excellence.

My "mug shot" from the reunion.

Halibut & berries in Vancouver.

Nearly 60 Antarcticans from all over the world gathered in Jaffrey in June for the South Pole-sium. Here we are in front of the Civic Center.

Up on the butte near Two Dot, Montana: revisiting the ranch I worked on in 1960. That was the bunkhouse back then.
